Providing Notice of a CPS Founded Disposition

- (1) Notice in all cases except those founded based on threat of harm for domestic violence. Except as provided in OAR 413-010-0717, the local Child Welfare field office must deliver a notice of CPS founded disposition (Form CF 313) to the person identified as the perpetrator in the CPS founded disposition. If the perpetrator is a juvenile, notice must be provided as required by OAR 413-010-0716. If the perpetrator is not a juvenile, the notice must be delivered as follows:
- (a) By certified mail, restricted delivery, with a return receipt requested to the last known address of the perpetrator; or

- (2) Notice in cases founded for threat of harm for domestic violence. The method or process for providing notice of a CPS founded disposition for threat of harm for domestic violence should maximize the safety of the child, the adult victim, and Department employees. The Department will not use the adult victim to deliver the notice. If providing the notice would increase the risk of harm to a child, adult victim, or Department employee, an exception to notification may be made with Department management approval based on documentation of risk.

Inquiry about a Review of a CPS Founded Disposition When a Person Believes They Have Not Received a Notice

If a person believes he or she is entitled under these rules to a "Notice of CPS Founded Disposition" (Form CF 313) but has not received one, the person may contact any Child Welfare field office to inquire about a review of the disposition. If the Child Welfare field office determines that the person making the inquiry has been identified as a perpetrator in a CPS Founded Disposition since August 4, 2000, staff must determine whether a "Notice of CPS Founded Disposition" (Form CF 313) was delivered to the perpetrator or the perpetrator refused the delivery of the notice, as evidenced by the returned receipt. If a notice was delivered to the perpetrator or the perpetrator refused delivery of the notice, as evidenced by a returned receipt, and the time for requesting review of CPS founded disposition has expired, the local Child Welfare field office must either prepare and deliver a "Notice of Waived Rights for Review" (Form CF 317) or inform the perpetrator by telephone of the information required in the "Notice of Waived Rights for Review" and document the telephone notification in the child welfare case file. If the perpetrator is a juvenile, the local Child Welfare field office must prepare and deliver a "Notice of Waived Rights" to the appropriate persons identified in OAR 413-010-0716. If no returned receipt exists or if it appears that notice was not properly provided, the local Child Welfare field office must deliver a "Notice of CPS Founded Disposition" as provided in OAR 413-010-0720 or, if the perpetrator is a juvenile, as provided in OAR 413-010-0716.
