Rules:

Purpose

413-030-0300

These rules describe the eligibility criteria for the program classification of adoption. The adoption program classification is used to describe the services provided to a child placed in an approved adoptive home for the purpose of adoption. This includes agency adoptive placements and courtesy placement supervision of a child placed in Oregon by an out-of-state adoption agency.

Policy

Eligibility for adoption program

413-030-0310

To be eligible for the program classification of adoption, a child must be in a living situation that is officially considered an adoptive placement. The following are considered eligible for the program classification:

(1) Children fully free for adoption and placed in an approved adoptive home shall be classified as adoption from the time the placement is approved until the adoption is completed or disrupted. (See Child Welfare policies I-G.1 and I-G.4.)

(2) Children receiving courtesy supervision for an adoptive placement initiated in another state through the Interstate Compact

Statutory Authority: ORS 418.005

Stats. Implemented: ORS 109.305-310, 418.270-285

Eligibility for the adoption program classification ends when 413-030-0320

(1) The Department gives consent for adoption of a child in the Department's permanent custody, and the adoption is legalized;

(2) The child is removed from an approved adoptive placement;

(3) The adoptive applicants or the Department decides an adoption will not be legalized even though the child is not removed from the home;

(4) When supervision of an adoptive placement provided as a courtesy service for an adoption agency in another state is no longer needed; and
