Purpose

The Department must develop, document, and implement a permanency plan for every child placed in the Department's legal custody for substitute care placement. The Department has four permanency plans from which to choose for a child. The four permanency plans, in order of preference, are: reunification with a parent; adoption, including adoption by a child's relative; legal guardianship, including guardianship with a child's relative; and APPLA. The purpose of these rules, OAR 413-070-0520 to 413-070-0565, is to describe the appropriate use of APPLA.

Definitions

The following definitions apply to these rules, OAR 413-070-0520 to 413-070-0565:

- (1) "APPLA" means Another Planned Permanent Living Arrangement, a permanency plan for a stable secure living arrangement for a child that includes building relationships with significant people in the child's life that may continue after substitute care. APPLA is the least preferred permanency plan of the four permanency plan options for a child and is appropriate only in very limited circumstances.
  - (a) "Planned" means the arrangement is intended, designed, and deliberate.
  - (b) "Permanent" means enduring and stable.
- (2) "Caregiver relationship" means a relationship between a person and a child that has existed for the 12 months immediately preceding the initiation of a dependency proceeding, for at least six months during a dependency proceeding, or for half of the child's life if the child is less than six months of age --- and the person had physical custody of the child or resided in the same household as the child; the person provided the child on a daily basis with the love, nurturing, and other necessities required to meet the child's psychological and physical needs; and the child depended on the relationship to meet the child's needs. "Caregiver relationship" does not include a relationship between a child and a person who is an unrelated foster parent of the child unless the relationship continued for a period of at least twelve consecutive months.
- (3) "Case plan" means a written, goal oriented, time limited individualized plan for the child and the child's family, developed by the Department and the parents or legal guardians, to achieve the child's safety, permanency, and well being.
- (4) "Certifier" means a Department employee who conducts assessments of applicants interested in providing relative or foster care to a child or young adult in the care or custody of the Department, determines whether to recommend approval of the operation of a relative care or foster home, and monitors the compliance of a relative care or foster care home with Child Welfare certification standards.
- (5) "Child" means a person under 18 years of age.
- (6) "Compelling reason" means a convincing and persuasive reason why it would not be in a child's best interests to be returned home, placed for adoption, placed with a guardian, or placed permanently with a fit and willing relative through adoption or guardianship.
- (7) "Department" means the Department of Human Services, Child Welfare.
- (8) "Foster parent" means a person who operates a home that has been approved by the Department to provide care for unrelated children or young adults who are placed in the home by the Department.
- (9) "Independent living housing subsidy" means a payment to assist in covering the cost of room, board, or other monthly expenses made to an eligible individual who is in the care and custody of the Department and living independently.

- (10) "Legal custody" means a legal relationship between a person, agency, or institution and a child that imposes on the person, agency, or institution the duties and authority of the child's legal custodian.
- (11) "Legal guardian" means a person or agency that has the duties and authority of a parent with legal custody to make decisions concerning a child, including but not limited to the following:
- (a) Authorize surgery and other extraordinary treatment for the child;
  - (b) Authorize the child to enlist in the armed forces of the United States;
  - (c) Consent to the adoption of the child; and
  - (d) Make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning the child, but a guardian is not a conservator of the child's property or estate.
- (12) "Parent" means the biological or adoptive mother or the legal father of the child. A legal father is a man who has adopted the child or whose paternity has been established or declared under ORS 109.070, ORS 416.400 to 416.465, or by a juvenile court. In cases involving an Indian child under the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), a legal father includes a man who is a father under applicable tribal law. "Parent" also includes a putative father who has demonstrated a direct and significant commitment to the child by assuming or attempting to assume responsibilities normally associated with parenthood unless a court finds that the putative father is not the legal father.
- (13) "Permanency Committee" means a group of three persons, who are responsible for making a recommendation regarding a child's permanency plan when the child likely is not returning to his or her parent.
- (a) A Permanency Committee must:
    - (A) Include two Department staff and may include a community partner, all of whom are approved by the District Manager or designee;
    - (B) When the child is an ICWA child, and a Permanency Committee is appropriate, identify a person from a federally recognized tribe as one of the three persons on the committee; and
    - (C) Have an identified chairperson approved by the District Manager or designee.
  - (b) The Permanency Committee members must:
    - (A) Be knowledgeable of permanency issues;
    - (B) Be knowledgeable of the importance of cultural connections;
    - (C) Have no personal or professional relationship to the child or prospective placement resource; and
    - (D) Represent multiple child welfare offices.

- (14) "Permanency plan" means a written course of action for achieving safe and lasting family resources for the child. Although the plan may change as more information becomes available, the goal is to develop safe and permanent family resources with the parents, relatives, or other people who will assume legal responsibility for the child during the remaining years of dependency and be accessible and supportive to the child in adulthood.
- (15) "Permanent foster care" means the out of home placement of a child in which there is a long-term foster care contract between each substitute caregiver and the Department approved by the juvenile court under which the substitute caregiver commits to raise a child in substitute care until the age of majority and be accessible to and supportive of the child into adulthood, until the court determines that APPLA - permanent foster care is no longer the appropriate permanency plan for the child.
- (16) "Relative caregiver" means a person who operates a Department approved home providing care for a related child or young adult placed into the home by the Department.
- (17) "Substitute care" means the out-of-home placement of a child who is in the legal or physical custody and care of the Department.
- (18) "Substitute caregiver" means a relative caregiver, foster parent, or provider authorized to provide care to a child or young adult in the legal or physical custody of the Department.
- (19) "Young adult" means a person 18 to 20 years of age who remains in the care and custody of the Department, and lives in substitute care or lives independently through the Department's Independent Living Subsidy Program.

Types of APPLA

The caseworker considers one of the following types of APPLA when considering APPLA as a permanency plan for a child:

- (1) APPLA - permanent foster care. An APPLA - permanent foster care is a plan in which the child remains in a substitute care placement with a substitute caregiver who has:
- (a) Committed to the care and well being of the child; and
  - (b) Entered into a permanent foster care agreement.
- (2) APPLA - permanent connections and support. An APPLA - permanent connections and support plan is a plan in which:
- (a) A child is in substitute care living with a substitute caregiver or living independently and receiving an Independent Living housing subsidy and the plan focus is not only on the child's educational, vocational, health, and treatment needs, but also on the needs of the child to develop or maintain relationships with adults, including relatives and persons with a caregiver relationship, who can play a significant role in the child's life after the child leaves substitute care; or

- (b) A child is in a psychiatric residential facility, Developmental Disabilities placement, or residential treatment facility and is not going to be discharged from the facility while the Department maintains legal custody of the child.

413-070-0536

When APPLA May Be Considered

- (1) The Department may consider APPLA as a permanency plan for a child or young adult only if the Department has determined that there is a compelling reason that it is not in the best interests of the child to implement one of the following preferred permanency plans, listed in order of preference:
  - (a) Placement with a parent;
  - (b) Placement in an adoptive home which includes permanent placement with a fit and willing relative through the adoption; or
  - (c) Placement with a legal guardian which includes permanent placement with a fit and willing relative as a guardian.
- (2) The Department considers and must develop a permanency plan based on the individual safety, well-being, and permanency needs of a child.
- (3) For purposes of implementing an APPLA permanency plan, the Department must document and submit to the court the compelling reason that it is not in the best interests of the child to implement a more preferred permanency plan in circumstances that include, but are not limited to the following:
  - (a) The child is an older teen, who has had an explanation and understands the permanency plan prior to rejecting all of the more preferred permanency plans.
  - (b) The child's tribe has identified an APPLA as the preferred plan for an Indian child.
  - (c) The adult with whom the child has formed a permanent attachment currently is unable or unwilling to adopt the child or become the child's guardian.
  - (d) A child 14 years of age or older is unwilling to consent to adoption.
- (4) The examples provided in section (3) of this rule are not intended to eliminate from consideration any more preferred permanency plan for a child in substitute care. Each child's permanency plan is based on the best interests and individual needs and circumstances of the child and determined on an individual basis. A child's age or disability is never a disqualifier for a more preferred permanency plan.

Consideration of APPLA as a Child's Permanency Plan

The Department determines that an APPLA is the permanency plan for a child or young adult when all of the following requirements are met:

- (1) The caseworker and supervisor review the APPLA plan and document:
  - (a) The compelling reason why each of the more preferred permanency plans is not in the child or young adult's best interests; and
  - (b) The basis that an APPLA plan is the most appropriate permanency plan for the child or young adult.
- (2) The caseworker must convene a team of individuals, knowledgeable about the child or young adult's needs, to consider an APPLA permanency plan for the child or young adult when it appears that the child or young adult cannot be reunified with a parent, placed for adoption, or placed with a legal guardian.
  - (a) The team must include:
    - (A) The child or young adult, unless the child or young adult refuses or is unable to participate in planning;
    - (B) The court appointed special advocate, if one has been appointed;
    - (C) A child or young adult's attorney; and
    - (D) The tribe, if the child is an ICWA child.
  - (b) In addition the team may include, but is not limited to:
    - (A) The child or young adult's parents (unless their parental rights have been terminated or their participation in the meeting would be harmful to the child or young adult);
    - (B) The child or young adult's substitute caregiver;
    - (C) The substitute caregiver's certifier;
    - (D) Relatives;
    - (E) Persons with a caregiver relationship; and
    - (F) Other persons with significant involvement in the child or young adult's life.
- (3) The team must:
  - (a) Identify and consider how an APPLA permanency plan meets the child or young adult's needs and best interests and the requirements of OAR 413-070-0536(1);
  - (b) Provide the child or young adult and the child or young adult's parents an opportunity to identify available permanency resources;

- (c) Consider the parents' acceptance of APPLA as a permanency plan and their desire for continued contact with the child or young adult;
  - (d) Consider how the child or young adult's substitute caregiver is able to meet the child or young adult's needs, and establish and continue cultural connections; and
  - (e) Consider each of the more preferred permanency plans described in OAR 413-070-0536(1).
- (4) After the team has complied with section (3) of this rule, the team must document the recommended permanency plan and how the plan assures the safety and well-being of the child or young adult, achieves permanency for the child or young adult, and provides the child or young adult with support in adulthood. The recommended permanency plan may be one of the two APPLA permanency plans only when the plan is the most appropriate permanency plan for the child or young adult, and addresses the child or young adult's permanency, safety, and well being needs.
- (5) When APPLA - permanent foster care is recommended as the most appropriate permanency plan for a child or young adult, the caseworker must meet separately with the substitute caregiver and the child to:
- (a) Assess interest in and commitment to a permanent foster care agreement with each substitute caregiver as long as APPLA - permanent foster care is the permanency plan for the child; and
  - (b) Review the requirements, responsibilities, and approval process for the permanent foster care agreement with each substitute caregiver.
- (6) The caseworker must meet with the child welfare program manager to review and approve the recommended APPLA permanency plan.

Review and Approval of an APPLA Permanency Plan

- (1) The caseworker must schedule a review of the recommended APPLA permanency plan with a Permanency Committee within 30 days of the approval of the team described in OAR 413-070-0540(2). At this review, the Permanency Committee must:
- (a) Receive comments in person or in writing from the caseworker, child's attorney, court appointed special advocate, substitute caregiver, and the child (when appropriate);
  - (b) Review the needs of the child or young adult;

  - (d) Review the proposed APPLA plan for the child or young adult; and
  - (e) Determine whether to recommend the proposed APPLA plan to the court for approval.
- (2) When the proposed APPLA plan is not approved by the Permanency Committee, and the caseworker, the supervisor, the child or young adult, or the child or young adult's substitute caregiver, attorney, or court appointed special advocate is opposed to the Permanency Committee decision, the caseworker, the supervisor, the child or young adult, or the child or young adult's substitute caregiver, attorney, or court appointed special advocate may submit a written request for a review of the decision to the District Manager within 30 days of the Permanency Committee's recommendation.

- (a) Within 30 days of receipt of the written request for review of the Permanency Committee recommendation, the District Manager or designee must complete a review of all written materials submitted to the Permanency Committee.
- (b) Upon completing the review, the District Manager or designee must provide written notice to the child or young adult's caseworker, supervisor, and any other party who requested the review that either:
  - (A) The Permanency Committee recommendation not to approve the APPLA plan is affirmed, and the caseworker is directed to reconvene the team described in OAR 413-070-0540(2) to reconsider the child or young adult's permanency options; or
  - (B) The Permanency Committee's decision not to approve the APPLA plan is reversed, the APPLA plan is recommended, and the caseworker is directed to proceed with the APPLA plan.
- (3) After any review has been completed, within 30 days of approval of the recommended APPLA plan as the permanent plan, the caseworker must request a permanency hearing before the court, requesting the court to consider and approve the APPLA plan. At the court hearing the caseworker must:

  - (d) Set forth the reasonable services the Department may offer each parent to meet the best interests of the child or young adult until a more preferred permanency plan is achieved, the child reaches the age of majority, reaches independence, or the juvenile court relieves the Department of legal custody of the child or young adult; and
  - (e) Set forth the type and amount of parent-child and child-sibling contact and involvement until a more preferred permanency plan is achieved, the child reaches age of majority, reaches independence, or the juvenile court relieves the Department of legal custody of the child or young adult.
  - (f) When the court previously has ordered or the Department recommends that no contact be allowed between parent and child or child and sibling, the caseworker must request that the court issue a standing protective order, including the reasons why no contact is allowed.

- (4) When the APPLA plan does not receive approval at any time during the process described in this rule, within 30 days the caseworker must:
- (a) Inform the child or young adult, the child or young adult's substitute caregivers, the child or young adult's parents, the child or young adult's attorney, the child's court appointed special advocate, and other persons with significant involvement in the child or young adult's life; and

APPLA Permanency Plan Reviews

- (1) The caseworker must review the APPLA case plan at least every six months and the review must occur prior to a review by the court or citizen review board as required by ORS 419B.470 and 419A.106(1) respectively.

- (A) When appropriate, the meeting may include a parent or legal guardian, unless the parent or legal guardian is not available for the review. When a parent or legal guardian is unavailable, the caseworker must document the reason the parent or legal guardian was unavailable and the efforts made to involve the parent or legal guardian.
  - (B) During the meeting the caseworker must consider input received from the child or young adult, other participants in the meeting, and other information received from service providers, substitute caregivers, a child or young adult's attorney, a child or young adult's court appointed special advocate, the tribe if the child is an ICWA child, persons with significant attachments to the child or young adult, and a child or young adult's relatives.
- (b) After the meeting described in subsection (a) of this section, the caseworker must document in the case record:
