Discussion/Interpretation: This policy is being updated to reflect federal rule changes. These changes require changes to current TANF eligibility determination procedures for Child Welfare. Various housekeeping changes have also been made.

Implementation/Transition Instructions: Federal Revenue Specialists (FRS) will implement the policy and relevant procedural changes after training at Eligibility Summit.

Training/Communication Plan: The policy transmittal will be the only announcement of the policy revision.

Local/Branch Action Required: The CF304 form has been revised; branches should order the revised version and recycle old versions. A small supply of the new CF304 forms will be distributed at the Eligibility Summit. FRS will implement procedural changes immediately after Eligibility Summit.

Central Office Action Required:

Field/Stakeholder review: Yes No

If yes, reviewed by: The draft policy was shared with Policy Council members and no comments were received.
