Message: The Children, Adults and Families (CAF) cluster of Oregon's Department of Human Services (DHS) has prepared a booklet to assist DHS caseworkers. The booklet provides a list of benefits and services that are available to help teens and young adults successfully transition to adult life. The booklet contains information from across all the Department's clusters.

The DHS Teen Services booklet is has been assigned form number 2301. The booklet is available at the following web site:

<http://dhsforms.hr.state.or.us/Forms/Served/DE2301.pdf>

Programs and services may change due to funding availability. Therefore, the DHS Teen Services Booklet will remain available through the website only. Please review the document and print copies as necessary.

CAF is interested in hearing feedback on the usefulness of the document or if we have neglected to include a DHS program that serves Oregon teenagers. Please send comments regarding the document to one of the following staff:
