Message:

During four scheduled Netlinks, Dr. Tina Kitchin, Medical Director with Seniors and People with Disabilities, will provide the latest information on the H1N1 flu virus and its potential impact on SPD and DD providers and clients. The sessions will provide information about the tools local offices can use to minimize the impact of the virus.

It is recommended that both SPD and DD case managers, service coordinators and managers attend. Group site registration is encouraged, given the limited number of sessions. The sessions are being offered:

- Tuesday, September 29th – 8:30 am or 1:00 pm
- Tuesday, October 6th – 8:30 am or 1:00 pm

Registration

The training can be found on the DHS Learning Center under Course # C01415, H1N1 SPD Update. To register, click on the following link:
